

How to engage us

There are several ways you may have found us. We may have been recommended to you by someone who knows us, possibly a client; you may have looked for financial advisers on the internet; seen an advert or approached us at a financial services show. Hopefully, you'll have taken a few moments to look at our website and read any literature we may have sent or given you. So, what happens next?

If you feel we may be the right firm of independent financial advisers to help you, it's easy to engage our services – just call us or send us an email asking us to call you when it's convenient for us to talk to you.

The process of engaging us is best shown in a simple flow chart which explains what happens and what you need to do at every step in the process, from that first phone call to the final step: 'Sit back and enjoying the benefits of the work your adviser has done for you'.
