

Christine Tucker

DipPFS, Cert SMP, Certs CII (MP & ER)
Independent Financial Adviser

One solution for all your financial needs

About Me

I am a highly qualified Independent Financial Adviser with over 30 years' experience in banking and finance. I provide independent, impartial financial advice on products and services from the whole of the market to personal, commercial and corporate customers.

I joined One Financial Solutions in 2013 and firmly believe that their business ethos matches my own in providing clients with the very best level of service.

I'm a member of the Chartered Insurance Institute (CII) and the Society of Mortgage Professionals and hold a Statement of Professional Standing.

My Experience

I worked for HSBC for many years, gaining invaluable experience and knowledge in assisting a diverse range of clients and companies with their financial needs and requirements. During my banking career I developed a varied portfolio of personal and commercial clients that included SMEs, private schools and IT consultants.

My areas of expertise include advising business clients on wealth management, business protection, succession planning, profit extraction and employee benefits. For my personal clients, which includes many company directors, I provide advice on wealth management, mortgage borrowing, retirement planning, personal and family protection and estate planning.

How I Work With My Clients

My main priority is to build and maintain long-term relationships with my clients, their businesses and families, ensuring they receive the highest level of service. It is key that individuals and businesses are given a bespoke personal service.

I am a proactive and approachable financial adviser and am able to give advice on all aspects of my client's financial needs.

What My Clients Say

"I have been delighted with the financial advice and services provided by Christine Tucker at One Financial Solutions. Christine is very helpful, provided a lot of time and expert advice tailored to my requirements, followed by full written advice and documentation in a timely and efficient manner. I would definitely recommend Christine Tucker's financial service advice and expertise."

"I would highly recommend Christine Tucker for her complete honesty, integrity and professionalism throughout all the dealings I have had with her for both my pensions and my mortgage. She has always acted very kindly, explaining everything throughout every transaction and talking through all my possible options. She has always been there both personally and on the phone when I have needed further explanation or clarification on certain points."
